Today Americans will observe Memorial Day, a federal holiday for remembering the people who died while serving in the country's armed forces.

Memorial Day is often confused with Veterans Day. Memorial Day is a day for remembering and honoring military personnel who died in the service of their country, particularly those who died in battle or as a result of wounds sustained in battle. While those who died are also remembered, Veterans Day is the day set aside to thank and honor all those who served honorably in the military both in wartime or peacetime.

Let's remember to honor those who died while serving our Country. Have a Blessed and Safe Memorial Holiday!

Cinco de Mayo

(Mexican Spanish: ['sɪnko ðe 'majo]; Spanish for 'Fifth of May') is an annual celebration held on May 5 to celebrate Mexico's victory over the Second French Empire at the Battle of Puebla in 1862, led by General Ignacio Zaragoza.

More popular in the United States than in Mexico,^[2] Cinco de Mayo has become associated with the celebration of Mexican-American culture.

Mother's Day is celebrated on the second Sunday of May in the U.S. (May 10, 2026), established as an official holiday in 1914 by President Woodrow Wilson. It is one of the biggest consumer holidays, with over 122 million phone calls made and high spending on flowers and brunch.

WISHING YOU A
BLESSED & HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!
